Flower power

UC Davis art student Rebecca Portney’s garden art show has the theme “From Landfill to Landscape.” She created giant rust-hued flowers that dot the landscape east of Mrak Hall using trash and scrap steel from the campus landfill. The flowers will be on view through Aug. 19. They are part of the UCD Arboretum’s GATEways Program (Gardens, Arts and The Environment), giving student artists an outdoor gallery for their creations.

WAYNE TILCOCK/ENTERPRISE PHOTOS