

COMPLETION JANUARY 2020

Electrical Substation Transformer Addition

Our campus is growing! To improve electrical power reliability, allow for redundancy in our electrical operations, minimize the impact of a major power outage and accommodate for this growth, we are adding a new transformer to our electrical substation located south of Interstate 80. Although the substation is relatively far away, the construction going on here is part of this utility improvement project.

For more information, call (530) 754-1111 or visit dcm.ucdavis.edu